

RPPOB Candidate List

- The RPPOB program provides domestic business concerns an opportunity to purchase, borrow, or view replenishment parts for the following purposes:
 - Design replication, product improvement or modification, and alternate sourcing through product identification or reverse engineering practices.
 - Development of data packages and submission to obtain approval to sell like parts to the government.
 - Enhancement of competition with resultant cost reduction by obtaining alternative sources of supply and manufacturing.